POST MILLS

The Fair Will Be Held Again in 1920, Citizens Decide.

At a public meeting of the citizens of Post Mills, held in grange hall Monday evening, Aug. 25, it was decided to have the Post Mills fair again in 1920. The date was set for Wednesday, Aug. 18. The following committees were elected: Executive committee, Rev. A. H. Sargent, Dr. L. B. Allen, R. H. Hatch; department committee—publicity, Dr. L. B. Allen; grounds, R. H. Hatch; orator, Rev. A. H. Sargent; live stock, Rev. L. E. Tupper; poultry, Frank Savory; farm products, Frank Robinson; children's work, Mrs. Charles Maxham; decorations, G. M. Wilson; dinner, Ladies' Benevolent society; confectionery, E. S. Knight; auction, C. A. Powell; athletics, Neal Allis; children's games, Sarah Allis; evening entertainment, Mrs. Mary O. S. Johnson; county farm bureau demonstration, Thorford Star grange; ice cream, Ladies' Benevolent society; home products, Mrs. Hattie Simonds; camp exhibit, Archibald S. Hurd. The success of Post Mills fair has made everybody eager to do more and better next year. A special feature of the fair in 1920 will be an Old Home gathering. Special effort will be made during the year to bring back all former residents of Post Mills and the town of Thetford.

The missionary institute, held in the Community church Wednesday, Aug. 27, was attended by about 125 people. Twelve churches, including four denominations and five towns, were represented.

Rev. L. E. Tupper told of his work as a pastor among white people in the mountains of Kentucky. Rev. William Slade, Professor Charles Jaquith and Miss Alice White gave first-hand reports of the education of negroes in the South. Rev. E. C. Condit appeared in native Burmese costume and told of his missionary work among the "Chins" of British Burma.

Rev. F. W. Bates of Thetford gave a thrilling account of his part of a pioneer expedition into the wilds of Africa. Rev. George of Worcester presented a startling array of the large number of ministers and missionaries who have gone out from the town of Thetford, and Rev. George F. Howard of Corinth made a stirring appeal for apostolic service at home in the rural churches of Vermont.

The churches represented were those of Thetford hill, Thetford Center, North Thetford, East Corinth, Corinth Meadow, Corinth Center, West Corinth, Vershire, West Fairlee, West Fairlee Center, Topsham and Post Mills. The collections exceeded the expenses by several dollars and this amount was given to help the work of Rev. E. C. Condit in Burma.
